at Paramount for the past twenty-seven years. He related that the applicant is one of the outstanding directors in the motion picture industry and that most of his pictures have been released through Paramount. Mr. DENTON continued that he considers the applicant to be a very loyal and patriotic American, of good character and reputable associates. He stated that he is acquainted with the applicant's wife and daughter, Mrs. CECILIA HARPER. According to Mr. DENTON, nothing which would reflect adversely upon the conduct or personal habits of the applicant has ever come to his attention, and he would recommend him without reservation for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

Mr. KENNETH CLARK, Director of Information, Motion Picture Association of America, stated that he has known the applicant professionally since 1936. He related that his contact has been casual and he does not know too much concerning the applicant's private life. According to Mr. CLARK, nothing which would reflect unfavorably in any way upon the conduct, moral character, personal habits, associates, or reputation of the applicant has ever come to his attention. He continued that the Director of the Motion Picture Association, Mr. ERIC JOHNSTON, is presently on a business trip and will not be back for some time. He continued that one of the applicant's oldest and closest friends is Mr. FRANK FREEMAN who is Vice-President of Paramount Pictures in Hollywood. Mr. CLARK added that he considers the applicant to be a very loyal American citizen and would recommend him highly for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

MISCELLANEOUS

Miss CHLOE TRAYLOR, head of the files section, Tax Court of the United States, made available the following files regarding the applicant, his wife, and his corporation.

A petition was filed in the U.S. Board of Tax Appeals (now Tax Court of the United States) on February 19, 1931, by CECIL B. deMILLE, docket #52995, regarding income taxes for the years 1924, 1925, and 1926, in the amount of $83,083.56 which was claimed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to be due from the applicant. A decision was entered on April 16, 1935, that DE MILLE owed the Government back taxes for the years 1924 through 1926 in the amount of $19,171.95. A petition, docket #61291, was filed by DE MILLE on January 12, 1932, regarding back taxes

WFO 123-13824

The decisions as entered by the U.S. Board of Tax Appeals were upheld by the Circuit Court on April 16, 1937.

A petition was filed before the U.S. Board of Tax Appeals by CONSTANCE A. deMILLE on May 5, 1933, docket #71952, in that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue claimed that $758.50 in income taxes for the year 1930 was owed by Mrs. deMILLE. The decision was entered on February 5, 1935, for the year 1930, showing Mrs. deMILLE owed taxes in the amount of $953.17.

The files reflect that all of the above cases were heard at the same time by the U.S. Board of Tax Appeals. In the instance of the back personal income taxes owed by DE MILLE, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue claimed that he owed taxes on his wife's salary income. Stipulations were filed December 20, 1933, in which it was stated that DE MILLE's wife's salary income was not taxable as she filed separate income tax returns.

In regard to the claims against the corporation, it was claimed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that the money was owed as the surplus had been accumulated which was beyond reasonable business needs in an effort to avoid paying surtax.

The files also reflect that a stipulation, docket #92287, was filed by CECIL B. deMILLE Productions, Inc., in that income taxes in the amount of $9,967.90 was owed for the year 1934. The decision was entered on May 4, 1938 that $9,967.90 was owed.

The files contain no additional pertinent information concerning the applicant, his wife or his corporation.

SA WALTER W. MATHIESON, Jr., determined that the files of the Office of Security, Department of State, contain no pertinent additional information.

SA WILLIAM J. STATEN advised the files of the [redacted] contain no pertinent identifiable security information concerning the applicant.

Among them were WILLIAM C. deMILLE and ROB WAGNER."

On page 151 the following was listed. "BRUCE ROGERS was the money-getter for the Communists, to whom ROBERT MORSS LOVETT, Harvard '92, as president of the Federated Press League, wrote urging him to see and collect money from WILLIAM C. deMILLE ~~and other actors and directors.~~ LOVETT said in this letter, which was quoted in an earlier chapter, that he had written these men, that 'they helped us before and will do it again,' and assured ROGERS that 'these men are with us.' It may be of interest to 'movie fans' to know that WILLIAM C. deMILLE married a daughter of HENRY GEORGE and has been very active in single-tax movements." No other information concerning WILLIAM C. deMILLE was listed.

Who's Who in America reflects that WILLIAM CHURCHILL deMILLE married ANNA A. GEORGE on March 30, 1903. The same parents are listed for the applicant and WILLIAM CHURCHILL deMILLE.

The following information regarding R. M. WHITNEY was listed.
"R. M. WHITNEY, director of the Washington Bureau of the American Defense Society, was born in 1875. He graduated from Harvard in 1897 and has been a newspaper reporter and editor in St. Louis, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego and during the war covered the State Department for the Associated Press. He has been a correspondent in Mexico, Central and South America for many papers. He is the author of numerous pamphlets on patriotic subjects."
